I used Southern Airways Express and was SO impressed and grateful for their service. They were personable and friendly. I had a late connection and literally had to RUN from one terminal to another and re-check in (I think it was in Baltimore). It was very stressful. When they saw me running down the hall, they called out not to worry - they were waiting for me. During that flight, it started to rain and was a little windy. I was completely comfortable and not worried.

Please keep Southern Airways Express open in Altoona, PA.
