Hi,

Our family is very grateful for the Southern Airways flight into Altoona! We have never had any issues with the flight being cancelled. A few times it has been delayed by a little due to weather but that's to be expected. The staff at Altoona airport has always been super friendly. Other than making the 4 1/2 hour drive to the Pittsburgh area we always use Southern Airways to get our daughter and her fiancé to and from for visits. We used to use the Hagerstown MD airport but unfortunately the contract with Southern was not renewed. This was a hard blow for us as that airport is only a 20 minute drive. I was very excited when I found a connector flight from Pitt to Altoona! It's still a 1 1/2 drive but sure beats the drive the whole way to Pittsburgh!! From experience with our daughter there is a lot of college students from my immediate area that would always use Hagerstown Airport. The downtown cultural district that many of the colleges are in don't have great parking options if any. This results in a lot of the students not taking a car to college so flying using Southern Airways is a wonderful and affordable option. She passed the word onto her college friends that are behind her & still in school about using Altoona!

Please keep Southern Airways in the Altoona Airport!!!

Sincerely,

The McNulty Family (frequent Southern Airways flyers)
