I moved to Pennsylvania 2 years ago and have flown out of Altoona numerous times. The staff and crew at Southern Airways have always been courteous and professional. As a former member of the military who worked on aircraft, I appreciate flying SA's smaller aircraft and enjoying my flight. They are roomy, comfortable, and serve the local area well as both a central and connecting hub to other airports. I hope the choice is made to keep Southern Airways in Altoona.

Sincerely,

Barbara Pounder
