U.S. DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Joint Application of

DELTA AIR LINES, INC. and WESTJET AIRLINES, LTD.

Under 49 U.S.C. §§ 41308 and 41309 for Approval of and Antitrust Immunity for Alliance Agreements

Docket DOT-OST-2018-0154

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE
AND SURRESPONSE OF THE WESTJET MEC

The WestJet Master Executive Council (the MEC) respectfully requests leave to file this Surrespouse to the January 13, 2020 Response of the Joint Applicants.¹ Good cause exists for accepting this Surrespouse, which addresses critically important labor, public interest, and policy concerns that were first publicly disclosed by the Joint Applicants in their most recent filing.² Specifically, the Joint Applicants have now

² As soon as the Joint Applicant's January 13, 2020 public filing was made, the WestJet MEC immediately engaged with both companies to address these concerns in the hopes that a public filing would not be necessary. Multiple phone calls were made to inside and outside counsel for the Joint Applicants, and one in-person meeting was held with Delta Government Affairs, along with countless emails. The WestJet MEC also reached out directly to their senior company management. Unfortunately, none of those efforts were successful in resolving the MEC's concerns. This filing is being made as expeditiously as possible in the circumstances and will cause no prejudice to either of the Joint Applicants.
