COMPLAINT OF DENISE WILLIAMS

1. This complaint arises out of WestJet’s non-compliance with the Department’s rules regarding consumers’ right to be refunded for flights to or from the United States (“U.S. Flights”) cancelled by airlines, even for reasons outside the carriers’ control, as described in the Department’s “Enforcement Notice Regarding Refunds by Carriers Given the Unprecedented Impact of the COVID-19 Public Health Emergency on Air Travel”¹ (“Enforcement Notice”).
2. This complaint also arises out of WestJet’s application of its refund policies, which constitutes an unfair or deceptive practice within the meaning of 49 U.S.C. § 41712². According to 14 CFR § 399.80(1)(l), it is the policy of the Department to regard as an unfair or deceptive practice or unfair method of competition the practices enumerated

¹ Enforcement Notice Regarding Refunds by Carriers Given the Unprecedented Impact of the COVID-19 Public Health Emergency on Air Travel (April 3, 2020) at https://www.transportation.gov/airconsumer/enforcement_notice_refunds_apr_3_2020.

See also 14 CFR § 259.5(b)(5), and Enhancing Airline Passenger Protections, 76 Fed. Reg. 23110-01, at 23129 (Apr. 25, 2011).

² Under 49 USC § 41712, the Department is authorized to investigate and decide whether a U.S. air carrier, foreign air carrier, or ticket agent engaged in an unfair or deceptive practice in air transportation or the sale of air transportation. The Department is also authorized to issue orders to stop an unfair or deceptive practice after notice and opportunity for a hearing.

in paragraphs (a) through (n) of this section by a ticket agent of any size and the practice enumerated in paragraph(s) by a ticket agent that sells air transportation online and is not considered a small business under the Small Business

Administration's size standards set forth in 13 CFR 121.201:

(I) Failing or refusing to make proper refunds promptly when service cannot be performed as contracted or representing that such refunds are obtainable only at some other point, thus depriving persons of the immediate use of the money to arrange other transportation, or forcing them to suffer unnecessary inconveniences and delays or requiring them to accept transportation at higher cost, or under less desirable circumstances, or on less desirable aircraft than that represented at the time of sale.

FACTS

A. Flight cancelled by WestJet

3. On July 21, 2019, I purchased a ticket for a roundtrip flight on WestJet from Halifax (YHZ) with a layover(s) in Toronto to Las Vegas (LAS) departing on April 10, 2020 with a layover(s) in Toronto (Attachment 1).
4. On , I learned that my flight was cancelled by WestJet (Attachment 2).
5. On March 17, 2020, I contacted WestJet to request a refund for the cancelled flight, but my request was denied. I was offered a Partial Refund and Voucher/Credit (Attachment 3). I accepted a refund of $46.20. I accepted a voucher/credit of $719.22.
6. I had booked the flight on behalf of 2 person(s). The name(s) of the individual(s) are the following: Paul Williams.

B. WestJet's refund policy for cancelled flights

7. WestJet's current policy is that customers who purchased nonrefundable flight tickets are not entitled to receive full refunds for flights cancelled or changed by the carrier due to reasons outside its control, including cancellations attributed to the COVID-19 pandemic. WestJet only offers flight vouchers or credits in such situations and claims in its United States English website that “in accordance with government regulations”, that such bookings are ineligible for a refund .

C. WestJet’s obligations

8. WestJet is an airline that operates flights from and to the United States and is therefore subject to the Department’s jurisdiction for such flights and bound by the rules enunciated in the Enforcement Notice, which apply to U.S. and foreign airlines operating flights from, to and within the United States.
9. In its Enforcement Notice, and based on existing federal regulation, the Department reminds airlines about their obligation to offer prompt refunds for flights significantly delayed or cancelled by the carriers, even if the reason of such flight disruptions are outside the carrier’s control, and regardless of the nonrefundability or cancellation penalty provisions of the ticket purchased by the affected consumers.
10. In page 2 of its Enforcement Notice, the Department lists the actions non-complying airlines must take to avoid enforcement action, as follows:
 - a. the carrier contacts, in a timely manner, the passengers provided vouchers for flights that the carrier cancelled or significantly delayed to notify those passengers that they have the option of a refund;
 - b. the carrier updates its refund policies and contract of carriage provisions to make clear that it provides refunds to passengers if the carrier cancels a flight or makes a significant schedule change;

- c. the carrier reviews with its personnel, including reservationists, ticket counter agents, refund personnel, and other customer service professionals, the circumstances under which refunds should be made.

11. On May 12, 2020, the Department issued a notice³ in the form of answers to frequently asked questions regarding airline ticket refunds. In the answer to question 4 of the notice, the Department reiterates that airlines may not retroactively apply changes to their refund policies and must honor the policies in place at the time of ticket purchase.

D. WestJet's non-compliance and violations

12. WestJet's current policy is that customers who purchased WestJet flights that included a United States segment that was cancelled by WestJet (UN, UC, or NO), due to WestJet's temporary route suspensions, they will be offering the option for a refund to the original form of payment or will be credited as WestJet dollars, valid for 24 months only if a flight was booked on or after March 3, 2020 (Attachment 4). WestJet acknowledges that these ticket holders are entitled to a refund but wants to delay the refund to an arbitrary date. For ticket holders who purchased a WestJet Vacation package before March 3, 2020 are not entitled to receive full refunds for flights cancelled or changed by the carrier due to reasons outside its control, including cancellations attributed to the COVID-19 pandemic. WestJet only offers flight vouchers or credits in such situations and claims in its United States English website that "in accordance with government regulations", that such bookings are ineligible for a refund. adheres to their company policy that the full value of the cancelled flight

³ U.S. Department of Transportation, Office of Aviation Enforcement and Proceedings, Frequently Asked Questions Regarding Airline Ticket Refunds Given the Unprecedented Impact of the COVID-19 Public Health Emergency on Air Travel (See answer to question 4: "May airlines and ticket agents retroactively apply new refund policies?") https://www.transportation.gov/airconsumer/FAQ_refunds_may_12_2020.

- will only be credited to a Travel Bank, valid for 24 months from the date of issue and WestJet Vacation packages will be credited as WestJet dollars, valid for 24 months (Attachment 5), but only if the WestJet Vacation is booked prior to March 3, 2020.
13. WestJet's policies indicated that some consumers can receive refunds for schedule changes and cancellations attributed to the COVID-19 pandemic if they have booked after March 3, 2020. WestJet's refund policies for cancellations and schedule changes for consumers who have booked prior to March 3, 2020 are negatively affecting consumers by no longer permitting refunds for bookings made prior to March 3, 2020. The new policy is applied by WestJet based on the date of the cancellation or schedule change, and regardless of the policy in place at the time the passenger purchased the ticket.
14. The aforementioned no-refund policy is applied by WestJet regardless of the policies and terms in place at the time consumers purchased flight tickets, which stipulate that WestJet will issue refunds for cancelled flights. WestJet's policy constitutes an unfair or deceptive practice within the meaning of 49 U.S.C. § 41712.
15. According to 14 CFR § 399.80(1)(l), it is the policy of the Department to regard as an unfair or deceptive practice or unfair method of competition the practices enumerated in paragraphs (a) through (n) of this section by a ticket agent of any size and the practice enumerated in paragraph(s) by a ticket agent that sells air transportation online and is not considered a small business under the Small Business Administration's size standards set forth in 13 CFR 121.201:
- (l) Failing or refusing to make proper refunds promptly when service cannot be performed as contracted or representing that such refunds are obtainable only at some other point, thus depriving persons of the immediate use of the money to arrange other transportation, or forcing them to suffer unnecessary inconveniences and delays or requiring them to accept transportation at higher cost, or under less desirable circumstances, or on less desirable aircraft than that represented at the time of sale.

16. Many airlines are complying with their obligations to refund passengers, especially after the issuance of the Enforcement Notice on April 3rd. These airlines will be in an unfairly disadvantageous situation if other airlines, such as WestJet are allowed to continue practices that violate the same obligations without incurring any penalty.

REQUESTED RESOLUTION

17. I am seeking the airline provide me with an Refund. In addition, I ask that the Department of Transportation to do the following:

- (1) Exercise its authority under 49 USC 41712 to open an investigation of WestJet for its non-compliance with the Department's Enforcement Notice and the regulations on which the notice is based;
- (2) Order WestJet to comply with its obligation to offer prompt full refunds to original form of payment for U.S. flights that are significantly delayed or cancelled by the carrier, regardless of the reason of such flight disturbances and regardless of the nonrefundability or the cancellation penalty of the tickets purchased by affected customers.
- (3) Order WestJet to:
 - a. contact, in a timely manner, the passengers provided vouchers for U.S. Flights significantly delayed or cancelled by the carrier to notify those passengers that they have the option of a refund;

- b. update its refund policies, contract of carriage and tariff provisions to make clear that it provides prompt refunds to passengers if the carrier cancels a U.S. Flight or makes a significant schedule change, regardless of the reason of such flight disruptions and regardless of the nonrefundability or the cancellation penalty provisions of the tickets purchased by the affected customers;
 - c. review with its personnel, including reservationists, ticket counter agents, refund personnel, and other customer service professionals, the circumstances under which refunds should be made.
- (4) Impose appropriate civil penalties on WestJet.

Respectfully submitted,
