Thanks, Nick. OMB concludes review. Yes, please upload the 8:27pm version into ROCIS tomorrow AM. I'll open it for amendment in the morning.

Best regards,
Elke

Elke,

I believe this version incorporates all edits resulting from EO12866 review. If you agree, we can load into ROCIS tomorrow morning.

Thanks very much,

Nick

Nick and Kevin, a few additional edits on the new text (and a leftover section). OMB would be ready to conclude on this version.

Best, Elke

Elke,

Attached are clean and RLSO versions of the 111(b) final rule. The versions reflect our acceptance of your line edits, our responses to your comments and suggested edits, and a few additional minor edits that we found while reviewing the document.

We can be ready to load a final version in ROCIS tomorrow morning once you give us final clearance.

Please feel free to reach out to either me (contact below) or Kevin (202) 222-5351 if you have any questions or need anything.

OK, thanks. Just on timing, Mary we are willing to do ROCIS in the morning so your folks don't have to be on call, but I'm told we'll have to agree on a version tonight (and in that case conclude via email).

I'm hopeful we are talking a couple hours. If it looks like it is going to be much past 6:30, Nick or I will let you know ASAP.

Thanks, Kevin. Yes, go ahead and send it to me and I'll pass along up the chain. Do you have an ETA on timing? Are we talking medium or super late tonight?

Elke,

We are working on a new version in response to these edits. I expect that it will do three things:

1. Accept all of the specific line-edits
2. Address the comment bubbles (in some cases this will involve new text)
3. Make a few other corrections (I don't anticipate any problems with these).

We hope to have a red-line and clean version later this evening. Should that go back to you?

- Kevin
