To whom it may concern:

Please close docket FAA-2001-8966. Punday Aviation is no longer interested in pursuing the renewal of its single-pilot exemption 6480. It has been five months since the FAA inquired about our interest in the exemption and two years since we submitted our request for renewal.

Punday Aviation has ceased operation and is no longer in need of exemption FAA-2001-8966, our trainer, Charles McConnell, has been able to secure his own exemption. Punday Aviation will not be looking for a new trainer or resuming any training activities.

If you have any questions or concerns, you may email me at ppunday@gmail.com or call me at 425-444-1996. Please be advised I do not answer calls that do not have caller ID, so leave a message.

Yes, we are still interested in obtaining the exemption. Is this email sufficient to continue or do I need to do a Docket request? My exemption request is still pending from June of 2020.
